

Record Numbers Reach Out to Hotline After Kavanaugh Hearing

The busiest day in the National Sexual Assault Hotline's history followed the testimony of Dr. Christine Blasey Ford.

READ MORE

NLC Member Highlight

Comedian, survivor, and activist Cameron Esposito speaks about her work on RAINN's National Leadership Council.

GET TO KNOW CAMERON

#MeToo: One Year Later

One year into #MeToo, survivors are still reaching out—and speaking out—in record numbers.

LEARN MORE

#MeToo

This October, Make Domestic Violence Awareness a Priority

When the perpetrator is an intimate partner or other trusted family member, help is available.

LEARN MORE

RAINN

CFC #10488

You can support survivors by designating RAINN through the Combined Federal Campaign

rainn.org/CFC

Survivor Speaks About Healing from Intimate Partner Violence

"I'm an outgoing person, I talk a lot. But when it came to this, it took me years to say anything to anyone," says Tara.

READ HER STORY

Survivors' Voices Matter

Cosby was brought to justice because of the brave survivors who told their stories.

READ MORE

Media Mentions

"Let's hope that the legacy of this case is that victims feel empowered to come forward, knowing that it can truly make a difference in bringing perpetrators to justice."
- Jodi Omear

The Washington Post

"On a typical weekday, our queue of folks waiting to talk to one of our hotline staff might be six to eight people. Today, it's gotten as high as 49."
-Scott Berkowitz

"There is a wide array of reasons that people don't come forward. It really depends on the person and... what's necessary for their healing."
- Keeli Sorensen

"We saw a 201% increase in calls to the National

"Sexual assault is a crime, and every allegation

"The president is misinformed about Sexual Assault Hotline. We often see an uptick when sexual assault is in the news.”

- Sara McGovern

should be thoroughly investigated.”

- Jodi Omear

standard behavior following a sexual assault.”

- Scott Berkowitz

Copyright 2018. All Rights Reserved.